A NEW SIMPLICITY 6000 FOR BANOON PASTORAL

Banoon Pastoral Co of Barraba have been looking to update to a one pass zero planting operation for a number of years. The change came in January when farm manager Peter Simpson took delivery of a new Simplicity 6000 Litre Air Seeder. His 33' Morris Concept 2000 Cultivator was fitted with Primary Sales double shoot sowing boots and zero till points. Peter's idea is to over-sow pasture seeds at the same time he is planting. The Simplicity 6000 Air Cart is fitted with a small seeds box to accommodate this part of the sowing.

The castoring front axle, 5 option bin split and ease of calibration were also features Bannon Pastoral were looking for.

NEIL WATSON'S NEW SUPERIOR SLASHER

Neil Watson (Santaco Rural), Tamworth was looking for a larger slasher that would reduce his time behind the wheel and be suitable for travel between two properties.

The Superior LNT10 is a Medium Heavy duty slasher that cuts 3 metre (10') per pass, and is therefore not too wide to make travel on the road a hassle.

The LNT10 has twin blades on overlapping rotors which gives a good mulching cut without slowing material flow out of the rear of the slasher.

With a low Hp requirement and big gearboxes (1 x 150 and 2 x 120) this slasher will give Neil years of service with more time to spend on the other things with the family or in his business.

The Tobin Bullet Disc Drill has the ability to sow at high speeds when moisture is critical to capture and retain. A 40' Bullet Disc Drill on 15" spacing is available for immediate delivery from Goodwin Kenny at Gunnedah.

Mick Kenny—Gunnedah (From Australian Defence Force website www.defence.gov.au)

15 Years ago Gunnedah's Mick Kenny used to sell ploughshares. Now the 47 year local is wearing an Australian Army uniform in East Timor, helping maintain the peace as part of the International Stabilisation Force.

Mick grew up in Gunnedah and started his career as a mechanic over 30 years ago with the family agricultural machinery dealership Goodwin Kenny (Sales) Pty Ltd. At the age of 32 he decided to do something different. He joined the Australian Army as a vehicle mechanic, and his talents have been used from the Southwest Pacific to the Middle East.

"After 15 years in the agricultural industry I was ready to try a different career," he said. "Now I've travelled widely and have broadened my trade knowledge a lot."

The former student at Gunnedah's St Mary's College loved passing on his knowledge to fellow soldiers, and it boosted his rise to become the workshop sergeant for the 1st Combat Engineer Regiment in Darwin. Mick has already been deployed to East Timor during 2001-2002, so he felt sure there would be no surprises during this trip. Instead he was promoted to Warrant Officer Class 2. "It was a great surprise—a bonus to the work in East Timor," he said. "My current position involves constant liaison with contractors to ensure the vehicles are in a safe and road worthy condition. My work also involves the local procurement of spare parts to assist the main workshop in the upkeep of ADF owned vehicles."

Working with contractors also allows Warrant Officer Kenny to get a good understanding of the challenges facing the East Timorese and the progress they have made since the troubles of 2006. "The lives of the people are slowly improving, he said. "They are a happy bunch, always smiling and polite. They are working hard to improve the country, especially in the area of tourism and the development of local infrastructure. I hope that one day I can return as a tourist to enjoy the friendship and the beauty of this magnificent country."

JOKE OF THE MONTH

Granddad and the Australian Taxation Office

The ATO decides to audit Granddad, and summons him to their office.
The auditor was not surprised when Granddad showed up with his lawyer.
The auditor said, 'Well, sir, you have an extravagant lifestyle and no full-time employment, which you explain by saying that you win money gambling. I'm not sure the ATO finds that believable.'
I'm a great gambler, and I can prove it,' says Granddad. 'How about a demonstration?'
The auditor thinks for a moment and said, 'Okay. Go ahead.'
Granddad says, 'I'll bet you a thousand dollars that I can bite my own eye.'
The auditor thinks a moment and says, 'It's a bet.'
Grandpa removes his glass eye and bites it. The auditor's jaw drops.
Grandpa says, 'Now, I'll bet you two thousand dollars that I can bite my other eye.'
Now the auditor can tell Granddad isn't blind, so he takes the bet. Granddad removes his dentures and bites his good eye. The stunned auditor now realizes he has wagered and lost three grand, with Granddad's lawyer as a witness. He starts to get nervous.
'Want to go double or nothing?' Granddad asks 'I'll bet you six thousand dollars that I can stand on one side of your desk, and pee into that wastebasket on the other side, and never get a drop anywhere in between.'
The auditor, twice burned, is cautious now, but he looks carefully and decides there's no way this old guy could possibly manage that stunt, so he agrees again.
Granddad stands beside the desk and unzips his pants, but although he strains mightily, he can't make the stream reach the wastebasket on the other side, so he pretty much urinates all over the auditor's desk.
The auditor leaps with joy, realizing that he has just turned a major loss into a huge win. But Granddad's own lawyer moans and puts his head in his hands.
'Are you okay?' the auditor asks.
'Not really,' says the lawyer. 'This morning, when Granddad told me he'd been summoned for an audit, he bet me twenty-five thousand dollars that he could come in here and piss all over your desk and that you'd be happy about it!'

Just to keep you up to date:

How lucky are we in these modern times to have access to digital images and be able to take and store many photos and memories for the future.
In the early 60's when Goodwin Kenny commenced business there were some photos taken (but not many) and these images are quite special, especially as we approach 50 years in business.
They are particularly significant to the next generation and I am both lucky and pleased that my daughter, Gina, has taken an interest in the family history and the family business. Gina has started to scan and catalogue the photos that we have. Unfortunately Aub & Joyce have not recorded dates and names on a lot of the photos- a lesson for all of us now to name & date photos- not because we will forget but because somebody in the years to come will want to know. I intend to share some of these photos with you through the Newsletter.
This month's image was taken in the early 60's at a Demonstration Day at Hillvue Road, Tamworth - an area which is now a residential area. The photo shows Aub Goodwin demonstrating a FIAT 615 Tractor pulling Connor Shea discs. Some of you may remember the day (perhaps you can give me some more information).
