

New Holland TT4.65 "headed for the hills"

Yarrowitch graziers Andrew and Danielle McCosker have taken delivery of their New Holland TT4.65 4wd tractor. This tractor is an addition to their existing machinery for use mainly spreading and spraying around their farm. They have chosen the TT4.65 for its extra weight, increased engine torque and basic size and robustness compared to the previous tractor they were using for this task. The New Holland TT4.65 has the same tyre size and overall dimension as the higher horsepower TT4.75 which has been a very popular tractor with customers of both New Holland and Goodwin Kenny.

Goodwin Kenny currently have a New Holland TT4.75 in stock at Tamworth for your inspection.

GOODWIN KENNY SERVICE LABOUR RATES - NO INCREASE

We have maintained our Labour Rate of $95.00 plus GST since 12th October, 2009 and while many other businesses have raised their labour rates we shall continue to do Service Work at this rate in an effort to support our customers. In addition to the Labour Rate we charge a travel charge per kilometre.

There is a charge for travel time during the Warranty period for any new machinery and this is at the normal retail rate. We are only reimbursed for Flat Rate or Standard Rate Time by our suppliers and this is a minimum time allowed to perform the labour or repair.

These days this rate is not expensive compared to other Trade Qualified people such as Electricians, Plumbers, Painters and Computer Technicians.

There has never been a better time to look into a Hustler Bale feeder. Why have cattle and sheep bogging up around fixed feeders – standing in water, destroying the ground, exacerbating foot and hoof issues, trying to eat wet soggy hay – let alone the issue of you trying to clean up the mess. You can save up to $6,000 and more per year by converting to a Hustler bale feeder even if you only feed out 200 round bales. Using a Hustler 3 point linkage or trailed feeder effectively feeds out in different areas of the paddock, spreads manure around more evenly, reduces the wastage of feed and ensures better uptake and utilisation of the dollar and feed value in the hay/silage you are feeding. Even the timid animals in your herd get full access to a windrow of teased out hay.

Check it out now by looking on line or viewing the machines in stock at Tamworth.

With all the rain lately, quite a few crops and pastures are feeling a bit waterlogged and lethargic. To get your crops or pastures producing in this cold damp weather, a top up of Urea or other fertiliser could be beneficial.

The Bogballe range of spreaders is ideal due in part to the high accuracy of its spreading pattern and the fact that they can spread accurately to wider widths than some other machines on the market. The 3 point linkage units most common to our area would include the L1 series – 1 tonne, L2 series – 2 tonne and the M3 series – 3 tonne. Spreading widths can be from 12m right up to 42m depending on machine and the vane options available – this reduces your cost and time. Bigger capacity units are available in the range if you have a tractor large enough to handle them.

Bogballe have a range of methods of control from simple Hydraulic On and Off, simple to use variable rate control and right through to weigh cell units with full GPS and section control for field mapping applications.

A simple L2 Plus with Hydraulic On/Off complete with Single lever operation Hopper Cover is $13,200.00 including GST – a great way to improve the efficiency of your spreading and therefore increase your profit. Bogballe spreaders are in stock at Tamworth and Gunnedah.

JOKE OF THE MONTH

Jamie in 2006

Keeping you up-to-date: the Girls Edition

Ten Years at Goodwin Kenny and still smiling!

Jamie Rutter commenced working at Goodwin Kenny in 2006 after completing her Business Training at TAFE. I nominated Jamie for a Rotary Pride in Workmanship award in 2012 and cited the following "Jamie does her job well and goes the extra mile. She always completes her tasks on time and with a happy and friendly manner. Jamie is helpful and encouraging to other staff and has broadened her skill base over time accepting other roles and responsibilities with a positive attitude. Jamie's knowledge of rural activities and clients in the North West is of great assistance to our business." And in addition to this she has a riotous and naughty sense of humour. She always remembers my Birthday, and usually helps me remember everybody else's Birthdays as well. We have been through a lot over the last 10 years and with determination, friendship and good humour we look forward to happy times in the future.

Looking at the photos I think there is a little bit of mischief in the latter one! I have watched Jamie grow from a shy teenager into a mature, caring and outgoing young lady. I would like to acknowledge Jamie's service to Goodwin Kenny and also her friendship.

GOODWIN KENNY, in partnership with New Holland Agriculture, were proud sponsors of The Australian Wool Fashion Awards. Pictured on the Red Carpet at the Awards on Friday 24th June at Tamworth Regional Gallery were Blagoj Ristevski, Maria Henry, Susan Goodwin & Cathy Neill.

What is the connection between Tractors and Evening Wear and The Australian Wool Fashion Awards? ....that is the first question.
Do you think my tractor is sexy? ...that is the second question.
I wanted something special to present to the winners at TAWFA and collaborated with Phillip Pitt at New England Engraving to achieve these "one of a kind" mementos for the occasion. My thanks to Phill, and just so you know - the ladies that won (Kiri Steele & Ellie Monley and Lou Webb) just loved the trophies and thought the tractors were sexy!

The Supreme Winner was a young 15 year old student from Brisbane Grammar School - Connor O'Grady pictured with Maria Henry and I having a chat after the Awards. A lovely young man, there with his Grandfather (a mechanic), who offered to buy Connor a Welder but bought him his first sewing machine instead. Hopefully we will see more from Connor in the future. The Australian Wool Fashion Awards not only encourage young and mature designers to showcase their talents and the use of Wool - they also provide an opportunity for other young people to become involved. I encouraged my "fairy god-daughter" Lara Housden to apply to be a model for the Awards Night as I thought she would be a good model. Lara did a great job "on debut" and I am so pleased she took on the challenge, seized the opportunity and enjoyed the experience. Pictured at right - catching up with Lara after the fashion parade had finished and Lara "in action" on the catwalk. (Photos can be viewed at TAWFA.COM.AU - 2016 Awards - Purchase Photos.)

I hope to see some familiar faces at Wean Picnic Races on Saturday 9th July & some more fashion.

...Susan Goodwin
